What’s on
Lectures, exhibitions, musicals and more
2017–18

Autumn/Winter Edition
Join us for a series of public lectures and events, showcasing the vibrancy of life at St George’s, University of London.

Discover how we are meeting today’s healthcare needs and how we have been pioneers in science and medicine for over 250 years.
Thu 14 Dec    INAUGURAL LECTURE
5:30PM–6:00PM
“Out of every ditch a path”: a cellular neurobiologist’s journey through university, teaching and leadership
Professor Jane Saffell
Cellular Neurobiology & Bioscience
VENUE: Michael Heron Lecture Theatre, Level 1 Hunter Wing

Thu 19 Oct    SPOTLIGHT ON SCIENCE
6:00PM–7:30PM
How can we decide which medicines are really value for money?
Professor Emma Baker
Clinical Pharmacology
VENUE: Boardrooms, Level 2 Hunter Wing

Thu 26 Apr    SPOTLIGHT ON SCIENCE
6:00PM–7:30PM
Just what are the lymphatics and what happens when they go wrong?
Dr Pia Ostengaard
Human Genetics
VENUE: Boardrooms, Level 2 Hunter Wing

Discover more ➔ www.sgul.ac.uk/events

All events are open to the public.
Getting here

Cranmer Terrace
London SW17 0RE

Five minutes’ walk from
Tooting Broadway

T: 020 8672 9944

Enter the university and St George’s Hospital site via Effort Street. Head for the main hospital entrance in Grosvenor Wing next to Marks and Spencer. Follow the corridor straight ahead and continue through the archway signposted ‘St George’s, University of London’ into the Hunter Wing. The main reception is on your right, just beyond a lift lobby which can be used to access venues on other floors.

Registration

Unless otherwise indicated, please register for events via events@sgul.ac.uk

Access

The university provides wheelchair access across all floors and entrances.

Contact us

For information about St George’s, University of London events, please contact events@sgul.ac.uk or visit www.sgul.ac.uk/events

The university shares a site with the hospital.