

Structural Inequalities in the Clinical Neurosciences
15th November 2024
Venue: Lecture Theatre A, Ground Floor, Hunter Wing

- 9:00 Introduction - Dr Jeremy Isaacs (he/him), St George's, University of London
- 9:15 An introduction to race and coloniality – Dr Thushari Welikala (she/her), St George's, University of London
- 9:45 Decolonising neuropsychology (Speaker TBC)
- 10:15 Adopting frugal healthcare innovations from low-income countries: racialised organizations and other systemic barriers Dr Matt Harris (he/him)
- 10:45 Break
- 11:00 Gender identity, sexuality and ageing (Speaker TBC)
- 11:30 Gender inequality in neurological care – Prof. Ruth Dobson (she/her), Queen Mary's, University of London
- 12:00 FND is a feminist issue – Dr Caoimhe McLoughlin (she/her)
- 13:00 Lunch
- 14:00 “Empire of Normality: capitalism and neurodiversity” (Speaker TBC)
- 14:30 Inequalities in neurological care across the NHS - Dr Niran Nirmalanathan (he/him)
- 15:00 Break
- 15:15 ‘Towards an antiracist neuroscience’ – Prof. Oliver Rollins (he/him), University of Washington, author of Conviction: The Making & Unmaking of the Violent Brain
- 16:00 Panel and audience discussion
- 17:00 Drinks

